SCHOOL NEWS

Kia ora koutou katoa, Greetings everyone!

The first two weeks of this term have ‘flown by’ and the next two weeks look like they will disappear even quicker! The next ten week days contain a strike, athletics day, Labour Day and Ag Day, so two exciting events and two days away from school. Please note with regards to strikes, whether we agree as a school staff with aspects of what is being negotiated for or not, we are obligated to support the ‘national consensus’.

Epic Music Band Performance

Our school band performed on stage last week with eleven other school bands also taking part. Our band sung a cover and an original song and have continued to demonstrate their growth as a group! Well done to all of our students who continue to practice hard to improve their individual skills, to make our band even better.

Football begins with students having a great time!

We now have two football teams competing each week and all of the students that took part, obviously had an enjoyable time. Many thanks to Hayden Ellwood for looking after these teams.

Summer hockey for Years 0-4 begins tomorrow

Summer hockey begins for our younger students tomorrow, with three Year 0-2 teams and one Year 3-4 team taking part. The draw and players teams, will go out with the students taking part as part of a notice today.

Hockey for Years 5-8 students will start again next term.

Mrs Peffers and Hayden will look after these teams and coaching will be given at school.

Manawatu Rugby lessons

Today we are lucky enough to have Manawatu Rugby coming into school to run skills and drills with all of our classrooms. I’m sure our students will learn a lot from Manawatu strength and conditioning coach, Rebecca Ailles.

What to be mindful of this week in brief;

TUESDAY—	SENIOR ROOM EXCURSION SUMMER HOCKEY BEGINS (Yr0-4)
WEDNESDAY—	YEAR 5-6 BOYS RIPPA RUGBY YEAR 3-6 FOOTBALL
THURSDAY-	STRIKE—SCHOOL CLOSED
FRIDAY-	BAINESSE SCHOOL ATHLETICS (EVERYONE WELCOME TO ATTEND)

Agricultural Day next week, Thursday 30th October

The competition will start at 10.30am. All competitors to be at school by 10.00am. By 28th Oct. all calves to be registered with NAIT . Our school NAIT no. is 12744602. The programme for the day will come home to all competitors this week.

NATIONAL TEACHERS STRIKE

BOARD OF TRUSTEES MEETING

This will be our first Board Meeting of our final term and as is always the case, anyone interested is most welcome to attend.

SCHOOL PHOTOS

Week 5—Wednesday 5th November

We will have school, class, individual and family photos taken on this day, so it’s important to have every student looking neat and tidy.

SMALL SCHOOLS ATHLETICS

Week 5— Friday 7th November

These inter-school athletics involve our whole school and are held in Rongotea.

Middle Room Ki O Rahi Practice

Our students always enjoy having Whakapai Hauora at school to take Ki O Rahi lessons!

For those unfamiliar with Ki O Rahi, it’s a game where two teams take turns at attacking and defending with a ball. The game utilises skills similar to rippa rugby, netball and dodgeball.

It’s also a game based on the legend of Rahitutakahina and the rescue of his wife Tiarakurapakewai.
